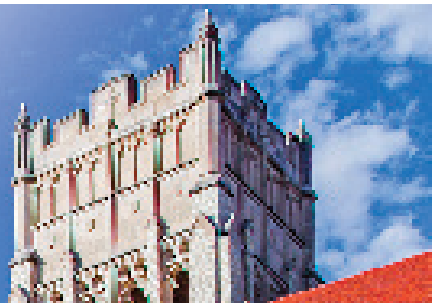
MOUNT MARY UNIVERSITY

RN to BSN COMPLETION

SCHOOL OF NATURAL & HEALTH SCIENCES & EDUCATION



Mount Mary's RN to BSN is designed for working RNs who wish to complete their bachelor's degree in nursing and is open to both women and men for enrollment.

Nurses in particular are well prepared to create, partner in, and lead the complex work of integrating the social and health sectors in support of the health and well-being of individuals, families, and com munities. Nurses, working with social services sectors in (Dzau, V. J. 2021, p xv).

Courses are offered in an online, accelerated, 8-week format, allowing for completion of the program in as little as 18 months. The final capstone experience involves working with a partner agency on an approved project in the health care environment; this does involve in person participation.

Dzau, V. J. (2021). The Future of Nursing 2020-2030: Charting a Path to Achieve Health Equity (2021).

BSN completion graduates will develop competencies in the areas of

- Organization/systems understanding
- Leadership development
- Evidence-based practice
- Information management and integration of technologies into practice
- Interprofessional collaboration and communication
- Clinical prevention and population health
- Comprehensive assessment
- Quality improvement strategies

RN to BSN Completion Program Courses

- Health Care Economics & Regulation
- Leadership for Social Justice Seminar
- Nursing Care in the Community
- Nursing Leadership I & II
- Evidence Based Practice
- Technology & Communication

The baccalaureate degree program in nursing at Mount Mary University is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (http//www.ccneaccreditation.org).

ABOUT MOUNT MARY

Mount Mary University, offers the following benefits

- Located on a beautiful 80-acre campus in Milwaukee
- Less than 9 miles or 20 minutes from downtown Milwaukee
- Over 30+ student clubs and organizations available
- Able to participate in NCAA Division III athletics teams
- Full access to the library, athletic center, health center and tutoring services

LEARN MORE ONLINE

For additional information about Mount Mary's academic programs, visit mtmary.edu/academics

EMPLOYMENT OUTLOOK

The nursing workforce continues to experience a shortage of nurse who possess a Bachelors in Nursing. According to the US Bureau of Labor Statistics (4-18-22), there is a current need for 300,000 nurses with an increase of nurse employment projected to be 3.4 million nurses by 2030.

Mount Mary UNIVERSITY

Sponsored by the School Sisters of Notre Dame

EXAMPLE PLAN

RN TO BSN COMPLETION

Note All Mount Mary courses are available online.

YEAR ONE

FALL Courses		SPRING Courses
NUR 401 Healthcare Economics and Regulation	3	NUR 420 Nursing Leadership I	3
NUR 402 Nursing Care in the Community	3	NUR 310 Evidence Based Practice	3
MAT 208, 216, OR PSY 310 Statistics	3	History Core	3
SYM 110 Leadership for Social Justice	3	Fine Art Core	3
SEA 101 Search for Meaning	4	Theology Core	3
TOTAL	16 credits	TOTAL	15 credits
		SUMMER Courses
		Philosophy Core	3
		Literature Core	3
		TOTAL	6 credits

YEAR TWO

FALL Courses
NUR 356 Technology and Communication	3
NUR 421 Nursing Leadership II	3
NUR 485 College Research Writing	3
ENG 120 Research Writing	3
Literature / Fine Art Core	3
TOTAL	15 credits

UPDATED AUGUST 2022

This example plan is intended to outline the number and types of courses a student might take in order to fulfill the degree, major, core and elective requirements to graduate. Students meet with their academic advisor each semester to review progress toward fulfilling their degree requirements.