College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

To earn college credit through the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), you can take exams to test your mastery of college-level material. A maximum of four semester hours on each of the General Examinations and three or four semester hours on each of the Subject Examinations may be granted on a Pass/No Credit basis.

Students are limited to a maximum of 20 credits by CLEP examination. Scores must be sent directly from the College Board.
